Claim Rejections - 35 U.S.C. § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371© of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 61-64, 66, 70, 71, 73, 76-79, 81, 85, 86, 88, 91-94, 96, 100-103, 106-111, 115-116 and 118 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Rochkind et al. (US Patent # 6,496,501).

Regarding claims 61, 70, 73 , 76, 85, 88, 91, 100 , 106 and 115, Rochkind discloses: means for attempting to initiate a communications session from a calling part's communication device (Fig. 1 @ 180 ; column 4, lines 25-30; see Fig. 2A @ 205, 210 and 215) to a called party's communication device (Fig. 1 @ 170 ; column 4, lines 34-36) across a packet based network (Fig. 1 @ 130); Means for receiving a packet based indication that the attempted communications session was not completed (Fig. 2B @ 270 ; column 5, lines 54-61); receiving means (column 2, lines 35-38) for receiving at the calling party's communication device a message providing an indication of treatment (Fig. 2B @ 240 ; column 5, lines 20-25) corresponding to the attempted communication session; receiving means for receiving at the calling party's communications device (Fig. 1 @ 170) a packet based message providing an indication of a treatment (Fig. 2B @ 240) corresponding to the attempted communications session, wherein the message is presented to the calling party through the calling party's communications device (Fig. 1 @ 170).

As to claims 62, 63, 64, 71, 77, 78, 79 and 86, Rochkind teaches that the receiving means (Fig. 1 @ 160) includes means for receiving a cause value and address of the associated message (column 6, lines 56-62) corresponding to the attempted communications session.

As to claims 66 and 81, Rockkind teaches that the receiving means includes means for receiving the treatment with the message (Fig. 2B @ 280 ; column 5, lines 46-53 ; the claimed treatment corresponds to deny call and take message as shown in Fig. 2B).

As to claims 92, 93, 94, 101, 107, 108, 109 and 116, Rochkind teaches that the second receiving step includes means for receiving a cause value corresponding to call party identifier and an address of the associated message (column 6, lines 56-67) corresponding to the attempted communication session.

Art Unit: 2666

As to claims 96, 103, 111 and 118, Rochkind teaches the that the second receiving step includes the step of receiving the treatment with the message (column 5, lines 46-53).

Claim Rejections - 35 U.S.C. § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 65, 67-69, 72, 74, 75, 80, 82-84, 87, 89, 90, 95, 97-99, 102, 104, 105, 110, 113, 114, 117, 119, and 120 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rochkind et al. (US Patent # 6,496,501) in view of Creswell et al (US Patent # 5,384,831).

Regarding claims 65, 72, 80, 87, 95, 102, 110 and 117, Rochkind teaches that the receiving means (Fig. 1 @ 160) includes means for receiving an address for accessing the message (column 6, lines 56-62). Rochkind fails to disclose an alternate language . However, Creswell discloses an alternate language (column 22, lines 67- column 23, lines 1-25). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to combine Creswell's adjunct switch with Rochkind's communication network. The motivation would be to provide capability for the system to operate in different languages.

Art Unit: 2666

As to claims 67, 82, 97,112 , Rochkind teaches that the receiving means (Fig. 1 @ 160) includes means for receiving the treatment (column 5, lines 62-67 ; see Fig. 2B @ 280 of Rochkind) and for caching the treatment for later retrieval.

As to claims 68, 74, 83, 89, 90, 98, 104, 113 and 119, Rochkind teaches that the receiving means includes means for receiving the indication of a particular version of the treatment (Fig. 2B @ 260 of Rochkind ; the claimed particular version of treatment reads on deny call and take message as indicated in Fig. 2B of Rochkind).

As to claims 69, 84 , 75, 99, 105, 114 and 120, Rochkind teaches that the receiving means includes means for receiving a multimedia version of the treatment (Fig. 2B @ 250, 260, 270 and 280 of Rockkind).

Response to Arguments
